

Novel coronavirus (COVID-19)

Government's response to COVID-19.

© 15 April 2020 at 3pm. Watch livestream.

Testing data

Alerts and notices

Support

When to seek help

Staying healthy

Mental health and well being

Working

Education

Stay informed

 Twitter

 Facebook

 Latest COVID-19 videos \(YouTube\)

 COVID-19 Updates podcast

Health Protection Act Order

To slow the spread of COVID-19, an order is in effect under the Health Protection Act.

- Practise social distancing – stay 2 metres (6 feet) apart from other people.
- Immediately self-isolate for 14 days if you've returned from outside Nova Scotia.
- Certain businesses need to close or reduce their operations.

What the Health Protection Act Order means for you

State of emergency

Government has declared a provincial state of emergency. The state of emergency is in effect until noon on 19

April and can be renewed.

Related information

- Provincial government closures
- Canada's COVID-19 Economic Response Plan
- 2019 Novel Coronavirus infection
- Symptoms and treatment
- Latest travel advice

Factsheets, posters, graphics and models

- COVID-19: resources and downloads
- COVID-19: social media graphics
- COVID-19: modelling

Contact

Government of Canada novel coronavirus information line

Toll free: 1-833-784-4397

Twitter YouTube Facebook

Privacy Terms

Crown copyright © Province of Nova Scotia