Other management information

On 14 April 2020 there were:

- 3,826 calls to 111 and 679 calls to the Coronavirus Helpline. The number of calls to 111 includes all calls, whether or not they relate to COVID-19

- 1,428 Scottish Ambulance Service (SAS) attendances, of which 451 were for suspected COVID-19. SAS took 246 people to hospital with suspected COVID-19

- 589 people delayed in hospital on 10 April. This is 1,023 less than the baseline period (04/03 weekly return) and follows an initial target to reduce delays by 400 by the end of March. A further target of reducing by a further 500 has been set for the end of April.

- 433 adult care homes which had lodged at least one notification for suspected COVID-19 to the Care Inspectorate. It is important to note that not all of these care homes will still have outbreaks; additional data will be published shortly on the number that that currently have outbreaks.

- As of 14 April a total of 7,093 staff, or around 4.3% of the NHS workforce, are reporting as absent due to a range of reasons related to Covid-19
