On March 8, 2020, Governor Kate Brown announced the state's public health response to COVID-19 in Oregon.

to slow the spread of COVID-19 in Oregon. The Oregon Health Authority is the lead agency for the public health response.

To slow the spread of COVID-19 in Oregon, Oregonians should follow the following steps:

1. Practice Social Distancing: Avoid large gatherings and crowded places. Order that you can get your groceries and other necessities without leaving your home.

2. Practice Good Hand Hygiene: Wash your hands frequently with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Use hand sanitizer if soap and water are not available.

For general information on COVID-19 in Oregon, call 211. If you are having a medical emergency, call 911.
