Latest: Golf Course Closing, 24 New Cases Confirmed

Recent Updates

Current cases: The state has 136 cases total, after 23 new resident and one new visitor case were announced Saturday among the more than 400 new tests. New cases were confirmed in Davis (2), Salt Lake County (13 resident, one visitor), Summit (4), Utah County (1), and Wasatch (3). This is slightly down from the 34 resident cases announced Friday.. You can see the cases on our new dashboard at coronavirus.utah.gov/case-counts.

Golf Courses Suspending Play: Salt Lake City and Davis County are suspending play at their courses beginning Monday because of concerns about the COVID-19 virus spreading. The courses have become crowded and there are concerns about rakes, flags, and carts becoming contaminated.

Missionaries called home: The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints announced Friday that many missionaries will return home because of the COVID-19 pandemic. New missionaries will continue to be trained through technology.

Resource pages: Anybody looking to help the many people and organizations impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic can visit our new donation resource page for specific fundraising efforts. Business owners can also visit the updated Business Resources page, which is being developed in partnership with the Salt Lake Chamber.
